Be prepared for big dental expenses with Maximum Accumulation.

Like most of us, you know how important it is to take care of your teeth by getting regular dental check-ups. Preventive care can help you avoid the big stuff when it comes to your teeth. But it's not foolproof.

What happens when your dentist delivers the news that you need costly dental procedures? Dental insurance can be a significant help financially, but there's a limit on how much it'll pay each calendar year. It's called your maximum benefit.

That's where Maximum Accumulation comes in.

How does Maximum Accumulation work?

You likely won't use all your maximum benefit every year. So where does that money go? If you visit your dentist during the year, you may be eligible to roll over a portion of your unused maximum benefit to increase your maximum benefit for the following year. It's available when you have dental coverage for preventive, basic, and major services.

- Preventive—Exams, cleanings, and sometimes x-rays
- Basic—X-rays, extractions, fillings, and sometimes crowns
- Major—Crowns, inlays, onlays, bridges, and dentures

How do you know if you're eligible to carry benefits over to the next year? If your dental benefits paid are less than $1,000, you can roll over $500 and accumulate up to $2,000. The amount accumulated is added to your annual maximum for the next year.

Let's look at an example of how the rollover amount is calculated assuming a $2,500 calendar-year maximum.

	Maximum*	Claim limit	Benefits paid	Rollover amount	Accumulated rollover
Year 1	$2,500	$1,000	$450	$500	$500
Year 2	$3,000	$1,000	$1,200	$0	$500
Year 3	$3,000	$1,000	$450	$500	$1,000
Year 4	$3,500	$1,000	$0	$0	$0
Year 5	$2,500	$1,000	$450	$500	$500

*Calendar-year maximum, plus accumulated rollover from the prior year.

You can see that in year 2, where benefits paid were more than the yearly claim limit of $1,000, there was no rollover. And in year 4, where there were no claims at all, your accumulated amount went back down to zero. That's why it pays to visit the dentist regularly for preventive care.

With Maximum Accumulation, you won't leave money for costly dental procedures on the table. See Insurance products issued by Principal Life Insurance Company®, a member of the Principal Financial Group®, Des Moines, IA 50392.

This policy has limitations and exclusions. For costs and complete coverage details, ask your employer. If your dental benefits are self-funded, then your employer assumes financial responsibility for paying claims, and Principal is contracted to administer the coverage on your employer's behalf.

For members with split maximums, the accumulation amount is based on the non-network maximum. If your dental coverage is effective in October, November, or December, you're eligible to start qualifying for rollover beginning in January. The amount you accumulate will be added to your maximum the following January.
